

While thin hair and baldness are undesirable for men, they are vastly more so for women. Nothing adds more to the adornment of women than rich, heavy, flowing tresses. The hair is too valuable to allow it to suffer from neglect. So just as soon as you notice that your hair is coming out you should use

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It checks falling of the hair promptly. This feature of Ayer's Hair Vigor is now recognized as most marked, and has brought to this preparation a world-wide reputation. You cannot possibly have a splendid head of hair when the scalp is covered with dandruff. We urge upon all who are in any way troubled with dandruff to begin the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor at once. Do not be deceived by cheap imitations which will only disappoint you. Make sure you get AYER'S Hair Vigor.

PARADE PLANS PROGRESSING MOST FAVORABLY

THE LINE OF MARCH SELECTED—VARIOUS DETAILS ARRANGED FOR SPECTACLE TOMORROW.

Queen Liliuokalani will review the Floral Parade. Chairman W. F. Dillingham called on the Queen yesterday morning and extended to her an invitation to be the guest of honor of the Floral Parade Committee. The Queen expressed her appreciation of the efforts of the committee and congratulated them upon the success of the previous floral parade. She will not take any active part in the parade itself, but will review the same from a stand to be erected at her home, Washington Place. She will be attended by Princess Kahanamoku and Princess Kawananakoa. The line of the parade was so formed as to pass Washington Place as an objective point.

Clifford Kimball is actively engaged in preparing the awards in the shape of flags and ribbons, also the banners to be carried by the heralds accompanying the Inter-Island princesses. All the events, prize winners and other items of interest during the review at the base ball park, will be announced with or without the aid of a megaphone by the leather lunged artist W. T. Monsuratt.

The committee are actively at work and the parade bids fair to surpass the parade of last year. There will be a great many decorated vehicles and the pa-u and riding sections will surpass in numbers and brilliancy any parade ever before seen in Honolulu.

The committee has requested the judges, and extends a further request through the press, that they meet the chairman in the parlors of the Young Hotel of the office floor at 11 a. m. Thursday, to discuss the method of procedure in judging. A complete list of the judges is as follows:

The prizes will be presented by Mrs. George B. Carter.

JUDGES.

Autos—Division No. 1, Section A. Large Touring Cars: Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. F. M. Swannay and Mrs. E. A. Schaefer.

Section B—Light Touring Cars: Judge Lindsay, Mrs. E. F. Bishop and Mrs. H. E. Ecker.

Section C—Runabouts: L. T. Peck, Mrs. A. F. Judd and Mrs. A. F. Griffiths.

Inter-Island Princesses: Capt. E. H. Humphrey, Mrs. B. Hayes-Brooke and Miss Nannie Winston.

Carriages: Decorations: Judge W. F. Frear, Mrs. J. M. Dowsett and Mrs. C. B. Cooper.

Carriages: Driving, Equipment, teams and horses: Capt. Soule, A. M. Brown and W. H. Smith.

Pa-u and Juvenile Pa-u: H. von Holt, Mrs. Eben Low and Miss Rose Davison.

Cow Boys and Juvenile Cow Boys: Eben Low, Alexander Dowsett and Charles Bellina.

Riders Other Than Pa-u: W. A. Greenwell, Mrs. J. A. Gilman and Mrs. Ernest Wodehouse.

Bicycles: C. H. Hutchins, Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne and Mrs. Augustus Knudsen.

Captain E. H. Humphrey has consented to act in place of Captain Carter who left on the Iroquois this week. The order of the parade in formation will be: Marshal and Aids, Hawaiian Band, Pa-u Riders, Inter-Island Princesses, Riders other than Pa-u, Juvenile Riders, Cow Boys, Horses and Carriages, Automobiles.

The formation of the parade will take place in the capitol grounds and will move out the King street gate of the executive grounds, past the judges' reviewing stand on the steps of the Opera House, along King street to Bishop street past the Young Hotel to Hotel street, thence along Hotel to Richards street, up Richards street to Central Union Church, thence along Beretania to Miller street, up Miller street to the side entrance of the Queen's Hospital grounds, through the Hospital grounds and down Punchbowl street to King, thence out King to McCully street, up McCully street to Beretania street and out Beretania street to the base ball grounds.

The automobile section, which will be the last section in the parade, will be cut off from the balance of the parade at the corner of Beretania and Punchbowl streets and will proceed out Beretania street to Thomas Square, thence down Kaplanian street to King and out King street.

This break in the formation will transfer the automobile section from the last to the first place in the parade and will enable the automobiles to get to the base ball grounds far enough in advance of the parade, to circle in front of the grand stand and take their places before the arrival of the horses and carriages. This will also keep the parade formation a unit through the center of town, at the same time enable the automobiles to get to the parade grounds in advance of the teams, thus avoiding confusion with the horses.

Frank Andrade of the pa-u rider committee says that he is experiencing considerable difficulty in securing English saddles and bridles for the riders. Any persons who will lend saddles and

BARRY WAS EASY FOR TOMMY RYAN

DAVE BARRY WHO WON EVERY THING IN SIGHT IN THESE ISLANDS, KNOCKED OUT.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., February 6.—Tommy Ryan, who is generally recognized as the middleweight champion of America, knocked out Dave Barry of Chicago in the fifth round here last night.

Ryan toyed with Barry for four rounds and suddenly cut loose in the fifth, putting the Chicago middleweight flat on his back with short right-hand punch on the jaw.

The champion was Barry's master from the first tap of the bell. The Chicago fighter tried to rough it in the early rounds but Ryan was too wily, and avoided his vicious rushes. From the viewpoint of a critic the fight was no screamer.—Washington Star.

Barry was the middleweight champion of these islands at one time. His last fight here was with "Cyclone" Kelly. He left here in June 1904. Barry has done well since leaving here, on the whole.

BASKET BALL SATURDAY.

The first of the series of basketball games arranged by the Diamond Heads will take place on Saturday, afternoon on the High School grounds, commencing at 3 o'clock. The public is invited.

CRICKET SATURDAY.

There are three British ships in the harbor at present and it is probable that on Saturday a cricket match will be played at the Makiki grounds between a local team and one from the ships.

WILL SHOOT TOMORROW.

The seventh annual shoot of the Hawaiian Gun Club will take place tomorrow at their traps. Several attractive prizes are offered.

HIGH SCHOOL WON.

The High School first team yesterday afternoon defeated the Punahou second team at soccer and will now meet the first team for the championship, such being the understanding when they went up against the second team. High school is doing good work in soccer and the games between the first teams should be interesting. The score yesterday was 3 to 2.

COMMERCIAL CLUB'S FIRST DINNER

THIS NEWEST HONOLULU SOCIAL ORGANIZATION MADE ITS DEBUT MOST EFFECTIVELY LAST NIGHT

The Commercial Club dinner last evening at the Seaside Hotel was a most delightful and successful affair. It was designed as a sort of informal first function of this newly organized social club, from which so much is hoped and expected for the amenity of business and business life in this city.

The table was set in the form of a great St. Andrew's cross, on the lanai of the hotel. In the center was a great bunch of papyrus, brilliant with varicolored electric lights. The decorations of the table were red and green. At the head of each arm of the cross, which the table formed, sat an officer of the club. At one, Vice-President A. G. M. Robertson, at another, W. H. Farrington, at a third E. H. Paris, and at the fourth F. W. Macfarlane.

As soon as the guests were seated, Vice President Robertson who presided in the absence of President George W. Smith, made a pleasing congratulatory speech on the hopes and prospects of the club: It had a purpose, as it was believed it had a field. That purpose was to bring together the men, whether of business or the professions, who represented the material side of life, and to create and cultivate a spirit of wholesome amenity and good will among them and to unite them and their efforts for progress and betterment.

The toasts began early. Chairman Robertson announced W. R. Farrington as the toastmaster of the evening. With an abundance of anecdote and much pleasant Mr. Farrington proposed the various toasts, and introduced those who were to respond. The toast to the President was responded to by Chief Justice Frear, who gave a brief character sketch and estimate of the man whom he said had given an entirely new meaning to the word "strenuous."

Judge S. B. Dole responded to the toast "The Territory of Hawaii," by a pleasing discourse on the philosophy of club life, with effective illustration of its heretofore character from the history and experience of Hawaii.

J. A. McCandless told of the future home of the club, promising that it would be ready by May 1. R. W. Breckons in a witty response illuminated by some breezy Wyoming anecdotes, pointed the moral and adorned the motto, "Strive hard, but eat and drink as friends."

Charles L. Rhodes responded for the "Press," pointing out that notwithstanding the seeming clamor and diversity in the utterances of the press of the land or of any community, there was a unity in it which made for progress and the benefit of the community wherever it was actuated by the determination to give the news of its field; that it is the news-giving press that was effective and valuable, though it was the news-giving element that aroused enmity in some quarters.

R. H. Trent made a most effective address on "Business and Politics" urging politics, the affairs of government, as the highest purpose to which business men could devote their efforts for the public good.

F. W. Macfarlane gave a jesting account of the difficulties that had beset the entertainment committee in this affair. He put forward quite effectively the proposal, which has had serious consideration in the club, of a Woman's Auxiliary, which, though held in abeyance for the present, has not been given up wholly by some of the members.

C. H. Dickey, responding for the "Army," gave some interesting reminiscences of the war for the Union. A. G. M. Robertson, responding for the "Navy," spoke of the spirit of hospitality which the "old navy" experienced in Honolulu, and which had made Honolulu famous the world over.

Fred L. Waldron spoke for the Merchants' Association, and A. B. Lindsay for the Scotch.

E. Politz for kindred organizations in San Francisco, made a very pleasant speech in which he gave some humorous tips on how to run a club.

E. I. Spalding, on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, the oldest commercial body in the Territory, made an exceedingly graceful and appropriate address.

Following the dinner, the guests gathered in little knots and discussed the dinner, club and other matters of interest.

Those present were: Judge Dole, Judge Frear, C. L. Rhodes, Mr. Mathewson, E. I. Spalding, R. R. Reidford, A. G. M. Robertson, A. G. M. Robertson, J. F. Childs, C. H. Atherton, Wm. Thompson, M. Phillips, J. G. Pratt, C. H. Jennings, S. Stevenson, J. L. Young, G. T. Kluge, O. C. Swain, John Lennon, W. T. Lucas, R. C. Lydecker, J. I. Fleming, F. J. Cross, H. F. Wichman, J. S. McCandless, Z. K. Myers, R. C. Stackable, J. D. McInerney, L. Abrams, H. Bews, E. R. Adams, W. W. Harris, W. H. Hoogs, Samuel Johnson, Mr. Derby, T. H. Petrie, Gus Schumann, F. W. Macfarlane, Jr., R. W. Shingle, C. H. Merriam, A. Herbert, R. A. Jordan, J. Schwartz, A. B. Lindsay, F. L. Waldron, G. Angus, E. O. White, F. B. Damon, E. H. Paris, C. H. Dickey, Edwin Politz, C. J. Hutchins, R. H. Trent, F. W. Macfarlane, R. W. Breckons, H. P. Wood, H. J. Buchly, R. L. Auerbach, W. W. Hall, J. C. Evans, A. J. Gignoux, J. A. McCandless, R. Simmons, T. S. Kay, C. G. Ballentyne, G. Lycourus.
